

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOME (ENGLISH LITERATURE)

PSO1. English is one of the most commonly spoken languages in the world. The study of English Literature enables students to read, write and understand the language.

PSO2. It allows the students to study English language and culture.

PSO3. Study of English Literature develops an understanding of social systems.

PSO4. They will have a mastery of the subject.

PSO5. It builds self confidence.

PSO6. The study of English Literature develops their ability to plan and implement projects in the field of literature and social sciences.

PSO7. The study of English Literature makes the students aware of social injustices and rights, power politics and the ways to achieve equalities. These aims are achieved as Literature Course encompass histories of cultural and social movements.

PSO8. The study of the English Literature also imparts knowledge of social and political history.

PSO9. English Honours course helps students in their research studies in various fields: Literature of other countries, social science, popular cultures and marginal studies.

PSO10. It improves job prospects for students.